

Appendix 3

Outbuildings destroyed by fire: 1867 to 1997

Religious affiliation of the school is identified when there are two schools in a single location.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1) Mount Elgin, Muncey, Ontario, playhouse (1889) <sup>1</sup>   | 14) Mount Elgin, Muncey, Ontario, barns (1915) <sup>14</sup>  |
| 2) Battleford, Saskatchewan, carpenter's shop (1894) <sup>2</sup>  | 15) Gleichen, Alberta, laundry building (1921) <sup>15</sup>  |
| 3) Elkhorn, Manitoba, girls' dormitory (1895) <sup>3</sup>   | 16) Round Lake, Saskatchewan, classrooms (1923) <sup>16</sup>   |
| 4) Old Sun's, T'suu Tina, North-West Territories (now Alberta), stable (1896) <sup>4</sup>               | 17) Anglican school on the Peigan Reserve, Brocket, Alberta, principal's house (1925) <sup>17</sup>   |
| 5) Mission, British Columbia, laundry building (1896) <sup>5</sup>                                       | 18) Chapleau, Ontario, former school building (1926) <sup>18</sup>  |
| 6) Metlakatla, British Columbia, girls' dormitory, laundry, and the school workshops (1901) <sup>6</sup> | 19) Duck Lake, Saskatchewan, former school building (1926) <sup>19</sup>  |
| 7) Mohawk Institute, Brantford, Ontario, barns (1903) <sup>7</sup>                                       | 20) Blue Quills, Alberta, stable (1928) <sup>20</sup>   |
| 8) Mohawk Institute, Brantford, Ontario, temporary boys' dormitory (1903) <sup>8</sup>                   | 21) Spanish, Ontario, boys' school, chicken coop (1930) <sup>21</sup>   |
| 9) Birtle, Manitoba, stable (1903) <sup>9</sup>  | 22) Lestock, Saskatchewan, laundry and garage (1931). <sup>22</sup> The school engineer was injured in the fire and the government declined to pay his medical bills, saying they were a church responsibility. <sup>23</sup> |
| 10) Coqualeetza Institute, Chilliwack, British Columbia, several outbuildings (1906) <sup>10</sup>       | 23) Shingle Point, Yukon Territory, principal's residence (1934) <sup>24</sup>  |
| 11) Hay River, Northwest Territories, henhouse (1907) <sup>11</sup>                                      | 24) Anglican school at Onion Lake, Saskatchewan, principal's residence (1934) <sup>25</sup>   |
| 12) Mount Elgin, Muncey, Ontario, boys' playhouse (1907) <sup>12</sup>                                   | 25) Birtle, Manitoba, poultry house (1934) <sup>26</sup>  |
| 13) Duck Lake, Saskatchewan, pump house (1913) <sup>13</sup>   |   |

- 26) File Hills, Saskatchewan, poultry house (1935)<sup>27</sup>
- 27) Fraser Lake, British Columbia, pig-gery (1935)<sup>28</sup>
- 28) Fort Resolution, Northwest Territories, power plant (1936).<sup>29</sup> Although there were no fatalities, two people were badly burned by the fire.<sup>30</sup>
- 29) Roman Catholic school at Fort George, Québec, laundry (1938)<sup>31</sup>
- 30) Roman Catholic school at Kenora, Ontario, staff residence (1938)<sup>32</sup>
- 31) Anglican school at Onion Lake, Saskatchewan, pump house (1939)<sup>33</sup>
- 32) Roman Catholic school at Kenora, Ontario, priests' residence (1939)<sup>34</sup>
- 33) Fraser Lake, British Columbia, poultry house (1940)<sup>35</sup>
- 34) Fraser Lake, British Columbia, poultry house (second fire in one year) (1940)<sup>36</sup>
- 35) Cranbrook, British Columbia, several outbuildings (1941)<sup>37</sup>
- 36) Fraser Lake, British Columbia, poultry house (1942)<sup>38</sup>
- 37) Alert Bay, British Columbia, pump house (1945)<sup>39</sup>
- 38) Brocket (St. Cyprian's), Alberta, horse and cattle barn (1946)<sup>40</sup>
- 39) Sandy Bay, Manitoba, garage partially destroyed (1948)<sup>41</sup>
- 40) Lestock, Saskatchewan, slaughterhouse (1948)<sup>42</sup>
- 41) Round Lake, Saskatchewan, barn, the blacksmith shop, and three granaries (1949)<sup>43</sup>
- 42) Round Lake, Saskatchewan, barn (1950)<sup>44</sup>
- 43) Presbyterian school at Kenora, Ontario, barn (1951)<sup>45</sup>
- 44) Brantford, Ontario, Mohawk Institute, two barns (1955)<sup>46</sup>
- 45) Amos, Québec, cow barn (1956)<sup>48</sup>
- 46) Sioux Lookout, Ontario, school hockey house (1957)<sup>47</sup>
- 47) Fraser Lake, British Columbia, pump house (1959)<sup>49</sup>
- 48) Fort Simpson, Northwest Territories, Roman Catholic Mission, barn (1959)<sup>50</sup>
- 49) Blue Quill's, Alberta, barn (1963)<sup>51</sup>
- 50) Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, skating rink change shack (1967)<sup>52</sup>
- 51) Williams Lake, British Columbia, engineer's shack (1967)<sup>53</sup>